

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved your time at home by reducing the number of interruptions in our home. Indiana's law has been effective and successful. We used to receive 15-18 phone calls per week and now we rarely receive a phone solicitation. The comfort of not being harrassed makes our lives enjoyable.